SCOR SE signs the Kyoto Statement, a major insurance and reinsurance initiative to combat climate change

Denis Kessler, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of the SCOR SE group, announces that his Group has signed the Kyoto Statement on climate change, launched by the Geneva Association. Through this statement, the SCOR group commits itself, along with the principle insurers and reinsurers throughout the world, to the continued reduction of its carbon footprint and to playing a leading role in the fight against the risks linked to climate change. The Group will achieve this more especially by developing research into climate risk, by putting its expertise in the field to work for its clients, by securing investments made in low CO2 technology and by working alongside the public authorities.

Denis Kessler, who is member of the Geneva Association Board, said: "...by signing the Geneva Association's Kyoto Statement, SCOR reaffirms its commitment to corporate citizenship, first made in 2003 as part of the United Nations Global Compact. The insurance industry has a pivotal role to play in the current struggle to control the risks linked to climate change. It has the expertise and the know-how needed to identify and manage risks induced by climate evolutions. SCOR intends to put such expertise and know-how to work for its clients by developing value added services and products. SCOR also intends to reduce its carbon footprint through the many initiatives launched by its subsidiaries throughout the world."

Forward-looking statements

SCOR does not communicate "profit forecasts" in the sense of Article 2 of (EC) Regulation n°809/2004 of the European Commission. Thus, any forward-looking statements contained in this communication should not be held as corresponding to such profit forecasts. Information in this communication may include "forward-looking statements", including but not limited to statements that are predictions of or indicate future events, trends, plans or objectives, based on certain assumptions and include any statement which does not directly relate to a historical fact or current fact. Forward-looking statements are typically identified by words or phrases such as, without limitation, "anticipate", "assume", "believe", "continue", "estimate", "expect", "foresee", "intend", "may increase" and "may fluctuate" and similar expressions or by future or conditional verbs such as, without limitations, "will", "should", "would" and "could." Undue reliance should not be placed on such statements, because, by their nature, they are subject to known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors, which may cause actual results, on the one hand, to differ from any results expressed or implied by the present communication, on the other hand.

Please refer to SCOR's document de référence filed with the AMF on 5 March 2009 under number D.09-0099 (the "Document de Référence"), for a description of certain important factors, risks and uncertainties that may affect the business of the SCOR Group. As a result of the extreme and unprecedented volatility and disruption of the current global financial crisis, SCOR is exposed to significant financial, capital market and other risks, including movements in interest rates, credit spreads, equity prices, and currency movements, changes in rating agency policies or practices, and the lowering or loss of financial strength or other ratings.
