Eric Sandrin is appointed Group General Counsel of SCOR

Eric Sandrin is appointed Group General Counsel with effect from 14 March 2011, reporting to SCOR's Chief Operating Officer.

Eric Sandrin, 46, a French citizen, is a graduate of the Institut d'Etudes Politiques in Paris, the Law faculty of the University of Paris and Cornell Law School. He is an attorney admitted to practice in Paris and New York. He started his career in 1990 as a litigation associate concentrating on bankruptcy and commercial litigation with the law firm Cleary Gottlieb Steen & Hamilton, initially in France and subsequently in the USA. He then spent 11 years with the General Electric Company, where he held various positions in France and Italy in two of the group's divisions (GE Healthcare and GE Oil & Gas), focusing on international commercial transactions and government relations.

From 2008, he was group general counsel of Atos Origin, a global IT services corporation listed on the Paris stock exchange.

Forward-looking statements

SCOR does not communicate "profit forecasts" in the sense of Article 2 of (EC) Regulation n°809/2004 of the European Commission. Thus, any forward-looking statements contained in this communication should not be held as corresponding to such profit forecasts. Information in this communication may include "forward-looking statements", including but not limited to statements that are predictions of or indicate future events, trends, plans or objectives, based on certain assumptions and include any statement which does not directly relate to a historical fact or current fact. Forward-looking statements are typically identified by words or phrases such as, without limitation, "anticipate", "assume", "believe", "continue", "estimate", "expect", "foresee", "intend", "may increase" and "may fluctuate" and similar expressions or by future or conditional verbs such as, without limitations, "will", "should", "would" and "could." Undue reliance should not be placed on such statements, because, by their nature, they are subject to known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors, which may cause actual results, on the one hand, to differ from any results expressed or implied by the present communication, on the other hand.

Please refer to SCOR's document de référence filed with the AMF on 8 March 2011 under number D.11-0103 (the "Document de Référence"), for a description of certain important factors, risks and uncertainties that may affect the business of the SCOR Group. As a result of the extreme and unprecedented volatility and disruption of the current global financial crisis, SCOR is exposed to significant financial, capital market and other risks, including movements in interest rates, credit spreads, equity prices, and currency movements, changes in rating agency policies or practices, and the lowering or loss of financial strength or other ratings.
